THE WORCESTER TO BREST CHALLENGE!

Ian Woodley, Mark Chatburn and Neil Morris - THE A-TEAM!

(to support the team please visit the justgiving link below)

www.justgiving.com/worcester-brest-challenge

The pace for the Worcester to Brest Challenge (see above and front page) is being set by the A-Team. On the evening of Wednesday 26th June 2013 they will be crossing the Channel from Plymouth to Roscoff, driving the team support vehicle to Brest and then mounting their cycles to travel the 40 miles from Brest to Roscoff. Arriving at Roscoff they will return across the Channel during the night of Thursday 27th June to arriave in Plymouth early in the morning of Friday 28th June. They then have two 100 mile days to get back to Crowngate Shopping Centre in Worcester by 4.00 pm on Saturday 29th June.

In the Crowngate - ST JOHN'S CYCLING CLUB On Saturday 29th June, members of the St John's Cycling Club will be undertaking the Challenge on their Static bikes in the Crowngate shopping centre. Their aim will be for their team to cover the 240 miles by the time the A-Team arrives!

Do come along and support the teams, or undertake your own Worcester to Brest Challange (see above!)

For more information please contact Nicky at the Campaign Office.
